Dear Friend,

People arrive at the Christine Center carrying the weight of uncertainty and exhaustion – or simply a deep longing for something more. They leave with renewed purpose, deeper peace, and a spiritual grounding that changes how they move through the world. That transformation happens because generous people choose to make it possible.

We'd like to invite you into that story.

The Christine Center depends on the generosity of donors — those who believe that inner transformation ripples outward, touching families, communities, and the wider world. Every gift, whether a contribution today or a planned gift through your estate, directly sustains this work for the people who need it most.

There are many ways to give:

- Gifts of cash or stock – immediate, tangible impact
- Bequests through your will – a legacy that reflects your values
- Life insurance or other planned giving vehicles – practical tools that benefit both you and the mission you care about

Planned giving has become one of the most meaningful ways donors ensure the causes closest to their hearts endure for generations to come.

If you feel called to be part of this work, please return the enclosed form to share your intention – or simply reach out. We welcome the conversation.

With deep gratitude,

Jonathan Elmergreen

Will or Living Trust

You can help ensure that another generation of spiritual seekers can find their way to our doors for the important work of spiritual deepening with a bequest. There is great flexibility in giving to the Christine Center through your will or trust.

You can give:

- A specific amount.
- A percentage of your estate.
- All or part of what remains after your loved ones have been provided for (a bequest of the residual of your estate.)

If you wish to give the Christine Center a gift of real estate or a vehicle, please contact Ann Swanson before making the gift.
